

Did you know.....?

Town of Los Gatos

Personal Emergency Preparedness

Los Gatos/Monte Sereno Police Department and Santa Clara County Fire partner to provide information and training to prepare our community in the event of a disaster. These opportunities include:

- ❖ Promote preparedness to community groups via the community outreach database, “What’s New!”, Nextdoor.com, and local media
- ❖ Conduct presentations and training to promote personal emergency preparedness year-round, but especially during the month of October, Los Gatos Emergency Preparedness Month
- ❖ Train Community Emergency Response Teams (CERT)

Small Town Service ~ Community Stewardship ~ Future Focus

Personal Emergency Preparedness

- ❖ The Los Gatos/Monte Sereno Police Department and Los Gatos/Monte Sereno CERT will be conducting Los Gatos Prepared presentations at ten locations throughout Town during the month of October.
- ❖ CERT members will be on hand to educate the community about the benefits of personal preparedness by providing tools and information
- ❖ Also on October 24th LG Prepared will be hosting the annual Red Cross blood drive
- ❖ For event locations please visit www.losgatosca.gov/losgatosprepared

Small Town Service ~ Community Stewardship ~ Future Focus

Personal Emergency Preparedness

It's not if the "Great Quake" will happen, it's when! Preparing your family makes sense. Get ready now.

For more information on home and personal emergency preparedness, or the CERT program please visit:

www.losgatosca.gov/losgatosprepared or

call Jackie Rose, Community Outreach Coordinator at: (408) 354-6853

Small Town Service ~ Community Stewardship ~ Future Focus